IT'S NOT TOO LATE. VACCINATE!

It's never too late to protect you and your family from the winter respiratory virus season.

UI Health Care Center for Disabilities and Development offers a vaccination clinic* designed for children (and some adults) with disabilities and/or a fear or phobia of needles.

 Currently offering flu vaccines with plans to expand to other vaccines in the future*

- ✓ Specially trained staff
- ✓ Non-clinical environment to reduce anxiety
- ✓ Distraction activities
- ✓ Prizes and snacks to celebrate a successful vaccine
